Player Code of Conduct

Every player who participates as a member of Team Nitro LI (TNLI) is expected to follow a code of conduct that promotes safety, healthy competition, sportsmanship, accountability, and overall good citizenship as you are a representative of TNLI. To fulfill this expectation, you are required to agree to the following:

1. Respect the game of Softball and its Rules at all times.
2. Understand that Softball is a game, so play the game because you want to play it and not because of any other reason.
3. Always display good sportsmanship, be modest and humble in victory and gracious and courteous in defeat.
4. TNLI players will always shake hands with opponents after a game in a polite and good sportsmanship manner.
5. Work for the good of the team and completely support and root for your teammates to succeed.
6. Conduct yourself with honor and dignity and treat other players as you would like to be treated in return.
7. Show complete respect for the authority of the Umpires at all times no matter what transpires during the game
8. You will treat each coach of TNLI (or any other team) with the utmost respect. You will give them your complete and undivided attention when they are speaking to you individually or to the team.
9. You will treat your teammates and their parents with the utmost respect.
10. You will not use tobacco, alcohol or illegal or performance enhancing substances at any time.
11. You will refrain from the use of profanity during all practices, games and when representing Team Nitro.
12. Cell phone use is prohibited from use during all practices and games. Use of one may only be allowed in an emergency and after asking permission of a coach.
13. Bullying of any type (cyber, etc) will not be tolerated and can results in the immediate termination from TNLI.
14. Read & Adhere to the TNLI Electronic and Social Media Policy addendum.

I have read, understand and hereby agree to abide to the TNLI Player Code of Conduct. I understand that the consequences if I do not can be up to and including game suspensions or termination from TNLI with complete forfeit of my player fee.
